

Resources from Dr. Seth Keller

National Task Group on Intellectual Disabilities and Dementia Practices

<http://aadmd.org/ntg>

My Thinker's Not Working: A National Strategy for Enabling Adults with Intellectual Disabilities Affected by Dementia to Remain in their Community and Receive Quality Supports

<http://aadmd.org/ntg/thinker>

Resources mentioned by Mette Pedersen, PhD

Connection to projects and products addressing aging and dementia among people with developmental disabilities from the UCEDDs:

<http://aucd.org/nirs/search/search.cfm>

This database includes education, research and service activities among the 67 University Centers for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD).

Administration on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities:

Developmental Disabilities Councils

Protection and Advocacy State programs

University Centers for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities:

<http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/aidd/resource/dd-program-contacts>

Resource mentioned by Amy Wiatr-Rodriguez

Fact sheet describes Alzheimer's disease clinical trials and studies, explains their scientific design, and offers key facts and questions to consider about volunteering for clinical research.

<http://www.nia.nih.gov/alzheimers/publication/participating-alzheimers-disease-clinical-trials-and-studies-fact-sheet>